

RAMAIAH COLLEGE OF LAW

CENTRE FOR WOMEN AND CHILD WELFARE POLICY

National level Essay Competition on November 14, 2021.

Aligned with the vision of Ramaiah College of Law, the Centre for Women and Child Welfare Policy (CWCWP) was established to promote research, learning and training in areas related to women and child welfare. As the objective suggests, the Centre would like to take an initiative in organizing an activity regarding child issues. As per the reports of the World Health Organization (2020), ‘Globally, it is estimated that up to 1 billion children aged 2-17 years, have experienced physical, sexual, or emotional violence or neglect in the past year’ (<https://www.who.int/news-room/fact-sheets/detail/violence-against-children>). Hence, it is our moral and legal duty to ensure their safety and security. While we celebrate Children’s Day, we members of the legal fraternity cannot be passive onlookers to the atrocities against children. Let us take a moment to examine some of the issues relating to children. The Centre for Women and Child Welfare Policy of Ramaiah College of Law is organizing a National Level Essay Writing Competition for Students on the topic of Child Abuse.
